Dear Tecora:

I wish to personally thank you for taking the time to perform for this year's annual Fourth of July Reception in Bangkok.

Reputations are not always easy to live up to, but you continue to surpass even the highest expectations. The event was a spectacular success and your guest appearance defined this year's celebration in a way that will be remembered for a long time to come.

Once again, my sincere thanks for a memorable evening. Best wishes for your continued success before audiences around the world.

Sincerely,
